

Missouri Valley College
Marshall, MO

The Division of Education at Missouri Valley College (Marshall, MO), a private, liberal arts institution, is seeking applicants for a full-time Assistant Professor of Education beginning August 2017. Responsibilities include teaching, assisting with placement and supervision of field experiences, advising undergraduate majors, and service to the institution. Applicants must be familiar with classroom pedagogy, current educational trends, and the use of 21st century technological devices. (We are an i-pad-integrated division; the campus uses Google Apps for Education.) In addition, the candidate must have a passion for educating future teachers and be willing to work in a small campus environment that emphasizes collaboration with other faculty who have a strong commitment to student success. The candidate should have an established record of at least 10 years successful K-12 classroom teaching and/or administrative experience. Master's degree in Education or related field required, terminal degree or Education Specialist preferred.

Interested candidates should submit the following: a letter of application, curriculum vitae, graduate transcripts (unofficial for application stage), teaching evaluations, and contact information for three professional references to Dr. Earl Wellborn, Dean of Education at wellborne@moval.edu Review of complete applications begins March 20, 2017. EOE. Employment at Missouri Valley College is contingent upon satisfactory completion of background check.