Assistant Professor or Instructor of Communications

The Division of Communications, Humanities, and Human Services at Missouri Valley College, a private liberal arts college, invites applications for an Assistant Professor or Instructor of Communications to begin August 1, 2018. The 5/5 teaching load will consist primarily of introductory courses in speech communication and mass communication, and possibly majors courses.

A master's degree in Communications or related field required; PhD preferred. Collegiality, professionalism, a strong commitment to teaching excellence and to the college mission, and willingness to serve on campus committees and to advise students are also necessary qualifications. Ability to teach courses in television/broadcast and familiarity with Google Apps for Education and Moodle preferred. To apply, please email cover letter, c.v., contact information for three professional references, and a statement of teaching philosophy (in PDF format) to Dr. Dave Reinheimer, Chair, reinheimerd@moval.edu.

Applications should be submitted by March 29, 2018. EOE. Employment at MVC is contingent upon satisfactory completion of background check and legal authorization to work in the United States.
